

FALL PROTECTION (FPT) -

Course Description –

Per OSHA standards, the student will learn what fall hazards are and the general requirements for fall protection. They will learn the use and application of fall protection systems including positioning and personal fall arrest equipment, use of specialized fall protection equipment, and their inspection and maintenance. Also emphasized is how to eliminate fall exposures and rescue considerations.